Policy for Severe Disruption/Evacuation during External Examinations Possible Causes

- Unreasonable noise disruption
- Fire/Bomb/Food Alert during an Examination

1. Unreasonable noise disruption

In the event of a severe disruption in an externally set examination, invigilators are advised to stop the examination, tell the candidates to close their answer books, make a note of the time and summon help (Exams Officer/Fire Officer/Main Office) to sort out the problem. Exam room conditions must be maintained.

When the disruption has been resolved the candidates can resume their examination and the time take to resolve the issue added on at the end of the examinations. The candidates must be always supervised and thus the break in the examination can be regarded as “a supervised rest break”.

An incident log (Appendix 3) must be completed with the times of the disruptions noted. The Exams Officer to make Examining Bodies aware of the disruption if necessary.

2. Fire/Bomb/Flood Alert during an Examination

In the event of a fire alarm or bomb alert sounding (or any other emergency arising) during an examination, the first priority of the invigilators is to preserve life. The next priority is to ensure the security of the examination.

The invigilator must take the following action in an emergency such as a fire alarm or a bomb alert. Stop the candidates from writing.

Collect the attendance register (in order to ensure all candidates are present) and evacuate the examination room in line with the instructions given by the appropriate authority.

Advise candidates to leave all question papers and scripts in the examination room. Candidates should leave the room in silence.

Make sure that the candidates are supervised as closely as possible while they are out of the examination room to make sure there is no discussion about the examination.

Make a note of the time of the interruption and how long it lasted. Allow the candidates the full working time set for the examination. If there are only a few candidates, consider the possibility of taking the candidates (with question papers and scripts) to another place to finish the examination.

Make a full report of the incident and of the action taken and send to the relevant awarding body.

Procedure for Emergency Evacuation from an Examination

If it is necessary to evacuate the building, the lead invigilator should then stop the examination taking a note of the time and evacuate the building by row and in silence. The candidates must leave all examination papers, scripts and writing equipment behind and in accordance with the school emergency evacuation procedures. The candidates should remain supervised and in silence throughout the emergency. Several other members of staff will be needed to help police this.

In the event of an emergency requiring candidates to evacuate buildings during an examination the following areas should be used but the candidates must be kept at a distance and in silence from the main body of students who will be mustering at the same emergency evacuation points:

- Learning zone 1: Students should be escorted out of LZ1 exit the rear door to the garden and to the side entrance to the car park. Then to the front gate at the assembly point
- Learning zone 2 and 3: Students should be escorted out of LZ2/3 to the back stairs and exit the rear door to the garden and to the side entrance to the car park. Then to the front gate at the assembly point.
- Learning zone 4 Students should be escorted out of LZ4 down the front stairs exit the front door to the car park and then to the front gate at the assembly point.
- Learning zone 5 Students should be escorted out of LZ5 via the fire exits either the rear door to the garden and to the side entrance to the car park. Then to the front gate at the assembly point or the front fire exit across the car park to the front gate at the assembly point

At all times invigilators must act in accordance with section 16 of the "Instructions for Conducting Examination" booklet. They should also summon assistance immediately an emergency arises. Silence should be maintained during the time the candidates are outside the examination room.

Section 16 of “Instructions for Conducting Examination” booklet states:

“The Invigilator must take the following action in an emergency such as a fire alarm or a bomb alert.

- Stop the candidates from writing.
- Collect the attendance register and evacuate the examination room in line with the instructions given by the appropriate authority.
- Advise candidates to leave all question papers and scripts in the examination room.
- Candidates should leave the room in silence.
- Make sure that the candidates are supervised as closely as possible while they are out of the examination room to make sure there is no discussion about the examination. Make a note of the time of the interruption and how long it lasted.
- Allow the candidates the full working time set for the examination.
- If there are only a few candidates, consider the possibility of taking the candidates (with question papers and scripts to another place to finish the examination
- Make a full report of the incident and the action taken (Appendix 3) and send to the relevant awarding body”.
